FIFTH VA. CAVALRY TO HAVE REUNION

Survivors of Gallant Regiment Will Have Banquet at Murphy's Hotel.

Probably two-thirds of the survivors of the famous Fifth Virginia Cavairy will answer to the roll-call at Murphy's Hotel to-morrow night, when the third annual reunion of the well-known nighting aggregation will be held. The first reunion was held at Norfolk two years ago, and the second at Murphy's less year.

years ago, and the second at Murphy's last year.

The aged survivors will engage in a banquet at the hotel, beginning at 8 o'clock. A committee, appointed to make arrangements for the occasion, is composed of P. J. White, president of the association, and Sam C. Shelld, both of this city.

General Thomas L. Rosser, of Charlottesville, the first colonel of the Fifth Cavalry, is expected to be present. Judge Samuet W. Williams, Demogratic candidate for Attorney-General, a member of the company recruited a member of the company recruited from Danville, will also be here. Other prominent men among the survivors are: General L. L. Lomax, General Munford and Captain E. P. Hulce, of Miniment and Captain E. F. Hate, of Hichmond.

Not quite fifty of the men of the Fifth are living, and some of them reside at such a distance tier, they cannot attend the renn'on. It is hoped to have all those now living in Virginia at the banquet table.

Gallant Record.

The men of this regiment are especially proud of their war record. Three of its commanders were killed on the field of battle, one of them, with three of the captains, being slain at the battle of Yellow Tavern. The colonel on that occasion was H. Clay Pate. on that occasion was H. Clay Pate. The regiment had gallantly held a line, and its bravery was complimented by General J. E. B. Stuart. But a few moments later Colonel Pate was shot and killed, and only a few minutes had clapsed before General Stuart an-swered the last roll-call. The roster of survivors, as nearly complete as it is possible to make it.

Interesting Joint Debate Between Democrats and Republicans at Emporia.

was at fever heat in Emporia to-day, the first joint debate of the present gubernatorial campaign being held here, when Congressman Francis Rives Lassiter, of Petersburg, met National Committeeman Alvah H. Martin and Lawrence D. Groner, both of Norfolk in a joint debate in the county courtpaign, not making any attempt at oratory. He took occasion to highly compliment Mr. Lassiter upon his position relative to the tariff on timber and pennuts. He dwelt especially upon the activity being displayed by the Republicans of Virginia in the present campaign, which he said meant much to the party.

Mr. Lassiter, who followed Mr. Martin, briefly outlined his interest in behalf of the race now on in Virginia, not intimating what his speech would deal with later on. He made it plain that he was glad of an opportunity to tell the people of Emporia and Greenesville county what it owed to State Democracy and to the efforts of State Democratic leaders.

By a prearranged plan, Mr. Martin was to open for fifteen minutes, followed by Mr. Lassiter for the same length of time. Mr. Grover followed in a forty-five minute address, which gave the Congressman from the Fourth District the same length of time in which to reply.

Mr. Groner made an impression upon his auditors, in that he reviewed Judge Mann's record, not unlike it was dissected during the contest between Tucker and the Nottoway candidate. Not once did Mr. Groner refer to the Democratic party, his entire time being given to the present gubernatorial nominee.

The local Republicans were out in force to hear Mr. Groner.

Mr. Lassiter, in reply to what Mr. Groner had said against Judge Mann's record, stated he was willing to abide by the vote of the people; that a majority had given him the nomination, which was sufficient evidence of his fitness to be Governor of Virginia, which is expected beyond a doubt.

Major Lassiter, during his speech, reviewed the record of the Democratic party in this State during the past twenty years. He said the people had prospered beyond those of many Southern States, and that such an influx of people was largely due to the broad principles of the State Democratic government. He concluded by calling upon the voters of this county to railty around the victorious standard of De-
